

Teacher / Instructor of Food Technology

HELENA ROMANES SCHOOL

Location:	Essex
Salary:	Unqualified Teacher Scale / MPS
Contract type:	Permanent, Full / Part Time
Closing date:	2nd June 2024
Interview date:	TBC
Start date:	September 2024

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding and dynamic teacher or instructor to join our successful Design and Technology Faculty, someone with energy and innovation with a passion for Food Technology and the learning experience. Those individuals who have experience in catering/cookery may also apply as unqualified teachers.

The successful candidate will be asked to teach across the ability and age range, supporting the development of Food Technology to a high standard for all students.

The successful candidate will:

- Be an outstanding teacher or someone with experience in this field who can learn the required curriculum.
- Raise achievement through high quality teaching and learning in Technology.
- Be passionate about the industry of Food and Nutrition
- Be an enthusiastic professional committed to providing our students with an outstanding education.
- Be able to inspire commitment and enthusiasm for Design Technology.
- Be a positive team player with a strong commitment to professional development.

We seek inspirational teachers or keen instructors with talent and drive to join our strong and successful team. We believe our success as a faculty is directly linked to the quality of our staff and the professional development of our teachers.

Helena Romanes is a thriving, all-through school for children aged 4-18, situated in the beautiful North Essex countryside. It has good communications to London and the South East, and it is approximately 7 miles from Stansted Airport. We are an inclusive school where every student is valued and has the opportunity to shine.

This is an exciting time to join the school:

- In September 2021, the school opened a Primary phase, with children in Reception and Key Stage 1. Together with the expansion of the Sixth Form, the school will grow to become an all-through school of 2000 pupils from ages 4 to 18.
- It is planned that the school will relocate to a world-class, purpose built site, close to our current location in Dunmow, in September 2025.

- Helena Romanes has made excellent progress with the support of Saffron Academy Trust towards being judged by Ofsted as a Good school. Working with the talented senior leadership team that is in place across all phases of the school, and drawing on the commitment from staff to provide the best possible outcomes for the pupils.

In order to apply for the position please complete an application form which can be found on our website <https://www.helena-romanes.essex.sch.uk/vacancies/teaching-staff-vacancies>
And return to Eleanor Ball, HR Officer eball@hrs.education

Visits to the school to meet with our staff and pupils are warmly welcomed and encouraged. Please contact eball@hrs.education to arrange an appointment.

The Governing Body is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. It expects all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS check and satisfactory references.

The school reserves the right to interview candidates before the published closing date.