About Helena Romanes School

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and dynamic teacher to join our successful Design & Technology and Art Faculties. This role would suit someone with energy and innovation who has a passion for Technology, Art or both and is committed to inspiring this in young people.

The successful candidate will be able to teach up to GCSE in either Art or Design & Technology. At HRS, Technology comprises the disciplines of Textiles, Timber and Food & Nutrition. This post is suitable for both ECTs and experienced teachers looking for a new challenge. For the right candidate we may be able to train and support you to develop a second subject. Both departments are well-resourced with warm and supportive experienced colleagues who work as a dedicated team supporting students to aspire to the highest standards.

The successful candidate will:

- Be an inspiring classroom teacher.
- Raise achievement through high quality teaching and learning in Design Technology and/or Art.
- Be passionate about motivating young people to make good progress.
- Be an enthusiastic professional committed to providing our students with an excellent education.
- Be a positive team player with a strong commitment to professional development.

This is an exciting time to join the school:

- In October 2023, Helena Romanes School was judged to be 'Good' in all areas by Ofsted.
- In September 2021, the school opened a Primary phase, with children in Reception and Key Stage 1. Together with the expansion of the Sixth Form, the school will grow to become an all-through school of 2000 pupils from ages 4 to 18. The Department for Education is building a state-of-the-art, brand new school which will open to the Primary phase in 2025 and the Secondary and Sixth Form Phase in 2026.
- We are a member of the successful Saffron Academy Trust, a highly effective local trust led by Caroline Derbyshire, CEO. As members of the trust, we receive a comprehensive package of school improvement and there is regular networking and support between the trust's primary and secondary schools.
- The successful candidate will work alongside a talented team of teaching and support staff who all want the best possible outcomes for pupils.

Classroom Teacher Job Description

Responsible to: Head of Subject/Head of Faculty

Responsible for: Teaching classes and other subjects as allocated by the Leadership Team

Core Purpose

- To provide excellent teaching so all students achieve their potential within an atmosphere in which students feel challenged, valued and secure.
- To assist the Headteacher and Leadership Team in the overall management and development of the school.

1. Teaching and Learning

- Plan and deliver lessons to ensure that excellent teaching, learning and progression takes place in all allocated classes.
- Mark, assess, record and report on student achievement and maintain accurate records as required.
- Prepare students for examinations and take part in standardisation or moderating exercises as required by the Subject/Faculty or examination boards.
- Meet deadlines for reporting, marking, submission of coursework and other assignments.
- Use data effectively to evaluate student progress and inform learning programmes.
- Ensure homework is regularly set and marked.
- Follow school policies for assessing, recording and reporting on student achievement, and use these to set targets for further improvement.
- Establish high expectations and ensure that clear targets are set for student achievement including those with special educational needs, the more able, and those who are disadvantaged.
- Contribute to the development of schemes of work, Subject, Faculty and School policies as appropriate.
- Employ a range of behaviour management strategies to maintain a purposeful, orderly classroom environment including neat storage and learning centred displays.
- Undertake specific duties within the Faculty as agreed with your line manager.
- Attend and contribute to appropriate meetings and professional development activities.
- Follow school policy and support the Leadership Team in the effective operation of the school.
- Teach, including planning, setting homework, marking and assessment in line with school policies.
- Engage with whole-school initiatives.

2. Management of Resources

- Ensure that school resources are properly maintained.
- Maintain an orderly classroom with neat storage and safe keeping of school property.

3. Other Professional Requirements

- Establish good working relationships with staff, students and parents.
- Have responsibility for a tutor group as required.
- Use the subject taught to prepare students for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of adult life.
